Evacuation Plan: (Routes, Bearings, GPS Coordinates, etc.)		Environmental Conditions &amp; Concerns
Always check the weather prior to launching. If lightning is incoming, turn around and head for the parking lot. If lightning is imminent seek immediate shelter. Dog River has several access points to pull over and seek shelter. Avoid sheltering under trees. Crouch on a kayak and cover your head to ground yourself in lightning. In high wind, stay close to the river's edge.		Don't forget to check the weather before you leave. Look For: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- lightning</li> <li>- winds higher than 6 mph</li> <li>- flash flood warnings</li> <li>- watch the radar prediction.</li> </ul>
Relevant Information (campsite check-in/out times, trail notes, important details, etc.)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Dog River current is very weak. It is an easy paddle whether you head upstream or downstream. Though it might be useful to check the wind direction. (Think of your paddle back.)</li> <li>● Dog River has steady motorboat traffic. Try to stay close to the bank. If crossing the river or a channel: gather all members of the group in a tight line (perpendicular to the river); paddle quickly and directly across the channel. Always look both ways, listen for boat motors approaching. Always yield to larger vessels.</li> <li>● Dog River Park boat ramp is open, parking varies. Be prepared to carry your kayak to the ramp.</li> <li>● Always use sun protection and hydrate.</li> <li>● PFD must be on board.</li> <li>● Packing List: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Dry clothes/towel to keep in the car.</li> <li>○ Small cooler bag for lunches and drinks.</li> <li>○ Water bottle</li> <li>○ Sunscreen, hat, sunglasses.</li> <li>○ Dry bag or ziploc bag.</li> <li>○ Consider printing a paper map if you do not want to bring your phone.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
